AND SOMEONE ELSE

YOUTH

Vincent Tilanus

When Tommy, a queer 17-year-old, discovers his father's hidden relationship with a man, he must choose between remaining silent or risking the break-up of his family.

Tommy, a queer 17-year-old, is stuck working a boring summer job at his dad's carpentry shop. His world is upended when he discovers sexually explicit messages between his father and a man named Erik. Torn between loyalty and honesty, Tommy faces an impossible choice that threatens to break up his family. As tensions rise and secrets surface, Tommy is forced to confront difficult truths, while gaining a new, more complex, understanding of love and commitment.

MISTER TWISTER MOVING OUT

KIDS & FAMILY

Frank Groeneveld

A lot seems to be changing for Tobias. His favourite teacher Kees is leaving home and his mother has met a nice man. However, he discovers that change isn't always so bad!

Tobias is happy, because teacher Kees has come up with a project to make robots with the whole class! The robots aren't very convenient for Mrs. Dreus, however. She is preparing the annual fox hunt (with a medieval twist) in which Kees must participate. Kees has other worries. His mother thinks he should move out! In the meantime, Tobias finds out that his mother has met someone. That feels quite strange. But together with Kees, Tobias discovers that change is not always such a bad thing...

FEATURE MAJORITY DOCUMENTARIES

THE INVISIBLE ONES

Martijn Blekendaal

A film about children who have developed the skill to go unnoticed and a filmmaker's journey to create an invisible superhero.

THE INVISIBLE ONES is a film about people who, as children, developed the ability to go through life unseen and unnoticed. The film tells the story of a filmmaker who plans to create, with their help, a superhero who can watch over invisible children as a guardian angel. The result is a playful and colourful quest that leads from Gotham City to Hollywood, from Gaza to Ghent. And from an obscure film lab deep underground to a long-forgotten Spanish film pioneer.
